We want to live in peace
NO to war
Humane welcoming for Ukrainian refugees and all those who flee from wars

We people of the world are the most affected by wars. We experience it personally and this is the reason why we are forced to emigrate. What is happening in Ukraine, Putin's criminal aggression and Nato's military arrogance which aims to expand itself, are expressions of the current unrestrained violence of the States against the people. As a matter of fact, nowadays, there are more than 50 conflicts which are creating so much harm to human beings.

In this last war there are already over 200 thousand refugees. All of them deserve to be welcomed, however, it is easy to imagine that they'll be forgotten on behalf of western democracies as well as other States, as has been the case with refugees from Afghanistan.

We need to react for the good of humanity. This war is a menace for all of us. In fact, fears, hate, divisions and racism increase with war, as we have seen with the shameful discrimination against african students living in Ukraine who were looking to find refuge in Poland. On the contrary, we want to commit ourselves so that all of this does not happen. Affirming peace also means finding the way to unite and to live-well side by side.

We are with the Ukrainian people so that they can find a way of accord and brotherhood. We are with the thousands of people, who with such courage, are protesting for peace all around Russia and against military aggression. Here in Italy, we also want to get together and unite forces towards brotherhood and interethnic solidarity.
